

Calling All Makers!

Re:Vision presents: Makers Alley 2025

This special two-day pop-up market brings together local artists and artisans, showcasing their work, artisanal goods, and unique handcrafted products. Located right next to the North East Firemen's Cherry Festival, it's the perfect spot to display your wares to a large audience of festival goers. Expand your market, connect with other artists and craftspeople, and bring your own unique slice of culture to a small town festival attended by 35,000 people.

We have a limited number of 10x10' display areas for participants.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

- Local artists, artisans, and crafters looking to expand their audience.
- Original Art & Handcrafted Items.
- Artisan sweets, treats, and savory eats
- Arts-oriented services
- Something awesome but not listed here? Just ask!

WHEN:

Friday, July 11th, 2025 Open: 5 PM - Dusk

Saturday, July 12th, 2025 Open: 12 PM - Dusk

WHERE:

14 North Lake Street, North East, PA (Just steps from the main festival action!)

HOW MUCH:

$100 for each 10x10' spot for both days

Contact Jason at 814-610-4873 or email jason@urbanrevision.org for more information.

Urban Re:Vision is a 501c3 nonprofit organization.